Prowler Netted 'Exercise'

A determined burglar who sought cash and netted mostly exercise was the subject of an elaborate investigation by Palm Springs detectives and police today.

The nocturnal prowler ransacked six offices here last night but initial reports indicated that his total loot for the half dozen jobs probably did not exceed $3.

DETECTIVE SGT. John Herrera, heading a team of police investigators that included Crime Lab Supt. Mel Vivion and Officer Ray Youngberg, launched an inspection of the six offices looted by the burglar. Included were:

Bill Bogges' real estate office at Penthouse 31, The Plaza.

Thompson and Colegate, attorneys, at 444 North Palm Canyon Drive.

DAN FLAX, insurance agency, also at 444 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Desert Car Wash, at 645 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Dr. William P. Aiken, doctor's office, at 687 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Morrison Adjustment Company, at 431-439 North Palm Canyon Drive.

"FROM ALL WE can estimate," Sergeant Herrera opined, "all the burglar got for his trouble was about $3 in cash, three $25 savings bonds and a lot of exercise."

He said that Dr. Aiken had reported petty cash in the amount of "between $2 and $3" was taken from a desk drawer in his offices.

At the car wash, the burglar carted off a cigarette machine, containing an undetermined amount of cash, and a few patio-type chairs, police reported.

Best line on the footpad was gained from Bogges, however. He said that he had left his office at 5:30 p.m., yesterday and had found it ransacked when he entered it at about 8:45 a.m., today.

Police have established that all six of the lootings took place during that time span.

"HE APPARENTLY thought that there was money in the safe," Bogges said, glancing at the disfigurement of the storage vault. "I don't think he wanted anything else. There were typewriters and adding machines all over the place—none of them disturbed."

As Crime Lab Supt. Vivion disted the safe for latent fingerprints, Herrera explained that a screwdriver had been used to pry both the front door and the safe.

At the Bogges office, however, the burglar also utilized Bogges' own letter opener and bent it partially in two in the effort.

NORMAL OPERATION for such investigation is for Vivion's fingerprint studies to be directed to Criminal Intelligence offices in Sacramento. They will be studied there for matching with prints already on file.

Sergeant Herrera said that the department would "assume" that the burglar is still in town and would "act accordingly."

Air Jordan Plane Crashes, 8 Killed

AMMAN, Jordan — (UPI) — An Air Jordan airliner crashed in the rugged hill country near the Dead Sea late Thursday and reports reaching here today said eight persons had been killed.

The aircraft, a Douglas C-47, was en route from Amman to Baghdad when it crashed into a steep, rocky slope.

The crash occurred at about 10:30 a.m. local time. The aircraft was carrying 28 passengers and four crew members.

The Jordanian government has ordered a full-scale investigation into the cause of the crash.

Missile Program

Symington Asks An 'Honest Count'

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said today "an honest count" will show Russia with a four-to-one lead over the United States in long-range, military missiles by 1961.

Symington, Air Force secretary in the Truman administration, spoke out after Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy told reporters he does not believe Russia has an intercontinental ballistic missile ready for operation against this country "at this time."

SYMINGTON CHARGED that the Eisenhower administration instead of closing the missile gap is "actually allowing it to widen."

He said in a Senate speech that a Senate investigation of the whole missile situation is in the offing. But he said this country's intercontinental missile inventory will be "less than 25 per cent" of Russia's in 1961.

"In other words," Symington said, "through 1961 our planning envisages the Russians having over four times as many operational ICBMs as the United States."

"I PERSONALLY have studied this matter for many months, and believe that these figures actually

LIVING COST DROPS DURING DECEMBER

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Lower food prices sent the cost of living down in December for the first time since August, the government said today.

The Labor Department's consumer price index declined two-tenths of 1 per cent last month to 123.7 per cent of average 1947-49 prices.

The wages of about 700,000 workers, whose pay is tied to the cost of living index by escalator clauses in labor contracts, will stay the same because of stability in the index.

EARNINGS OF THE average factory worker — after taxes — rose to all-time highs last month, at $79.60 a week for a man with three dependents and $72.10 for a single factory hand. The earnings were about $1.20 above the November level.

Although the cost of living dropped last month, the index was 1.7 per cent higher than for December, 1957.

LOWER FOOD prices in December were accompanied by lower prices for new cars, women's and girls' costs, suits and dresses, recreation and personal care.

Oranges, eggs, coffee, poultry and pork cost less than last month according to H. E. Riley, Labor Department price chief.

Riley said food prices probably will rise this month, but that the over-all living costs are not expected to rise very much if at all.

RENTS, FUEL OIL, home furnishings and repair costs all pushed housing costs higher last month. Transportation costs dropped despite an increase in used car prices and eastern railroad fares rose last month. Additional discounting by new car dealers accounted for the drop.

Higher doctor and dentist fees and group hospitalization insurance rates led to an increase in costs of medical care.

Shortly before the December cost of living report was issued, the White House announced that President Eisenhower, in an anti-inflation move, created a special committee to survey government activities affecting prices and costs.

Special Drivers' Symposium Set Saturday, Jan. 31

Resort area drivers were today invited to participate in a special "drivers' symposium" scheduled for presentation at City Hall Saturday, Jan. 31.

The symposium will be led by five traffic safety speakers who will offer demonstrations and open discussion on relative factors of driving safety.

Cuban Major Sentenced to Die After Marathon 'Crime' Trial

STUDENT ON-JOB-TRAINING GIVEN BOARD ENDORSEMENT

An on-the-job training program for high school students, created by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, last night won the unanimous endorsement of the Palm Springs Board of Education.

Board members ordered Schools Supt. Dwight Twist to proceed immediately with organization of a program designed to train high school boys in skilled trades.

"I THINK IT IS a fine program," said Member B. H. Pollak, reflecting the impressions of the other board members. "We are indebted to the Junior Chamber for its proposal."

The training plan was presented to the board last night by Bob Marx, chairman of the Jay Cee program, and a delegation of Junior Chamber members headed by President Frank Allen.

Marx explained that the program offers summer on-the-job training courses for students, giving them an opportunity to develop skills for employment after graduation.

"HIGH SCHOOL graduates now cannot hold a job requiring specific skills," he asserted, "because they have not had enough vocational training."

The program, prepared after more than six months' study, offers these boys an introduction to the trades, gives them school credit and a summer income.

Marx said 40 local firms polled by JayCees demonstrated "enthusiastic approval" and expressed the desire to see the program start immediately.

"I WOULD BE interested in seeing the program continue through the regular school year," said Paul Summit, district special services director. "It is an excellent supplement to the school curriculum."

Creation of the program was based on the need here for skilled youth in all types of manual trades, Marx said.

Under the program, students will work six summer weeks, receiving $40 a week for a 40-hour week.

"Of course," Marx noted, "it isn't enough time for them to learn a trade, but it will serve to give them a feel of the job they may seek after graduation."

MARX POINTED out that the program will also give students a sense of direction and security, knowing that "they will have a much better chance for employment when they leave school."

Schools Supt. Dwight Twist told the board the program would cost the district no more than a regular summer school course, and he recommended its endorsement.

"I think it's a very good program," said Board Member Frank Muller. "It's something that has been needed for a long time."

Twist was authorized to proceed with organization of the plan for adoption by the board. The plan will, if it is adopted, go into effect this summer.

KENNETH KIRK this week was named as president of the board of directors of the Desert Hospital District for another two-year term. Other officers elected were Clifford Babin, secretary, and Dr. William Aiken, treasurer, both selected again for two-year terms.

30,000 'Fans' Exit Before Sentencing

Officer in Protest Of 'Roman Coliseum' Atmosphere at Trial

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban Army Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, the first "war criminal" to be tried here, was sentenced to death today at a 12-hour and 19-minute trial that ended at dawn in the overcrowded Sports Palace Stadium.

Nearly all of the foreign newsmen covering the trial and most of the 30,000 spectators who jammed the 15,000-seat stadium at the start of the trial Thursday night left before the sentence was announced at 6:04 a. m.

SOSA, WHO WAS charged with responsibility for at least 100 deaths and the burning of 120 homes, denied his guilt on every count. Anything he did, he said, he did as a soldier under orders.

The three-man revolutionary tribunal which passed judgment on Sosa ordered that he be taken to the Cabana Fortres Prison to await the order for his execution. The judges said he would have an opportunity to appeal the sentence.

The major complained that he was being tried in the atmosphere of the "Roman Coliseum" where early Christians were fed to the lions.

HE REPEATEDLY voiced his scorn of the crowd, which booed and jeered defense requests for evidence or for time to prepare his case. The spectators booed Sosa as a "coward" and a "murderer."

The trials will resume this afternoon with the prosecution of Capt. Pedro Morejon Valdes, second of the "big three" defendants among the 600-odd military prisoners here.

LA Col. Richardo L. Gau will be tried later.

Picket Line Is Established At Thunderbird

Culinary and Bartenders Union, Local 535, yesterday at noon established a picket line at Thunderbird Country Club, and over half of the exclusive club's personnel walked out.

Ed Schill, manager of Thunderbird, said today that the strike, called by J. A. (Pete) Rees, is an attempt to organize the entire club.

Schill said that the club signed a contract with the Culinary and Bartenders Union two years ago, but this was an attempt to organize the entire club.

Immediately following the placing of pickets at the entrance of the club yesterday, employees walked out, and the management replaced the workers with other personnel and continued to serve the hundreds of persons who are at the club.

Rees was not available for comment.

2 States Get Disaster Status After Rampaging Floods

United Press International Clear, cold weather overspread the East today on the wake of rain-fed flash floods which drove more than 20,000 persons from their homes in Ohio and Pennsylvania and trapped a dozen coal miners underground.

The death toll in the succession of snow, wind, sleet and rain storms which began Tuesday neared the 100 mark. Damage mounted into the tens of millions of dollars.

GOV. DAVID L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania declared a state of "extreme emergency" in the flood stricken area stretching from the New York state border to Pittsburgh. He appealed to President Eisenhower for federal aid. Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said he also would seek federal aid.

The Small Business Administration declared three Ohio counties disaster areas. The Office of Civilian and Defense Mobilization sent teams of disaster surveyors to Pennsylvania and Ohio to recommend action on federal aid.

IN OHIO, AT least 16,000 persons were forced to flee homes inundated by two days of flooding. Licking, Knox and Muskingum counties in Ohio were declared disaster areas. An estimated 8,800 persons were homeless in western Pennsylvania floodlands.

A United Press International count since the start of the storms showed at least 90 weather-connected deaths in traffic, overexertion, drowning, exposure or tornadoes. There were 16 in Ohio, 13 in Wisconsin, 11 in Illinois, 10 in Michigan, 9 in Indiana, 6 in New York state, 4 each in Iowa, Kentucky and Pennsylvania, 3 in both Missouri and Oklahoma, 2 each in Kansas, New Mexico and Texas and 1 in Washington.

Police, FBI Hunt Kidnap of 23-Day-Old Boy

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police and FBI agents searched the city's populous Spanish-speaking slums today for the pregnant woman who kidnaped a 23-day-old boy entrusted to her by a mother who fell for a clever apartment-hunting ruse.

The kidnaped child was identified as John Tavaraz, the son of Dominican immigrants. The baby was ill with a heavy cold when he was taken from his crib shortly before 4 p.m. (e.s.t.) Thursday.

THE TAVAREZ apartment where the kidnaping occurred is located on the West Side Manhattan block of 158 West 84th St., known as "the worst block in New York" because of sordid slum conditions, prostitution, dope peddling, muggings and thefts.

Authorities hoped that several clues supplied by Johns mother, Mrs. Doraliza Tavaraz, 31, would lead them to "Mrs. Gladys Garcia," the Spanish-speaking woman about 30 years of age who took the baby while Mrs. Tavaraz was on a wild goose chase in the Bronx.

MRS. GARCIA told Mrs. Tavaraz she was married, had three children, and lived on Southern Boulevard in the Bronx, an area with many Latin-American residents.

FLEISHER STARTED AS A CHILD PRODIGY

When Pierre Monteux announced back in 1953 that a 15-year-old pianist would be featured soloist with his San Francisco Symphony, you could hear the reaction all the way to Berkeley.

But the next morning the critics—and those members of the public who were not so skeptical as to stay away—sounded glowing tributes to Leon Fleisher.

THEY SAID THAT Fleisher—who appears at 8:15 p.m. Friday, in the inaugural presentation of the newly-formed Community Concert Association in Palm Springs High School Auditorium—was "a young Rachmaninoff" and "the greatest new musical talent since Yehudi Menuhin." Even Conductor Monteux was moved to comment that the teenaged keyboard artist might prove to become "the pianistic find of the century."

Fleisher, who is making Monteux look like some sort of prophet, has spent the intervening 16 years logging playing time with virtually every major orchestra under every major conductor in the world.

LEON FLEISHER, who at 31 is already one of the half-dozen most sought-after pianists in America, will perform for the newly created Palm Springs Community Concert Association Friday. Fleisher's concert is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. in the Palm Springs High School Auditorium.

HIGH POINT OF that decade and a half was the contest in May, 1952, in the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium International Concours, one of a handful of top-level piano tests in the world today.

The judges—who included Robert Casadesu, Artur Schnabel, Rudolf Kerkusny and other authorities—listened intently to the 71 aspirants from 28 nations and then wasted no time whatsoever in handing the award to Fleisher.

Since winning the Belgium competition, Fleisher has had two completely booked tours of the United States, a half dozen swings through Western Europe that brought ovations from every audience that heard him, an appearance at the Brussels Fair last year—he was the first American asked to perform there—and a host of other laurels.

HE HAS BECOME more accustomed to stroking his Steinway in front of such orchestras as the Concertgebouw of Amsterdam, the Boston Symphony, the Los Angeles Philharmonic and others, but will find himself alone on the stage of the Palm Springs High School Auditorium Friday night.

Not alone, exactly. He'll be bringing with him what the Boston Globe has termed "the fabulous technique and interpretive ability of all the masters." Together, they ought to present quite a concert.

Playerstage Goes to El Paseo

Earle C. Strebe Theaters this week signed an agreement with Playerstage producer-director Martin Beck for use of the famed El Paseo Theater for the presentation of legitimate theater productions.

With plans under way for the complete remodeling of the theater for stage plays, which will be run in conjunction with art films, the El Paseo Theater is scheduled to become the leading "art house" of the Coachella Valley.

THE AGREEMENT calls for six major productions during the winter season, with other plays continuing through the rest of the year.

Some of the changes contemplated in the theater will be the enlarging of the stage area, the installation of stereophonic hi-fidelity sound system and the addition of new footlights and lighting equipment. A renovation of the lobby will include the display of allied arts, i.e. mosaics, paintings, pottery, and photography.

Birthday Marked With Hike to Tahquitz Canyon

RANCHO MIRAGE—Honoring the eighth birthday of their son, Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodfin, of Woodfin Motors in Cathedral City and Ontario, took Gregg and his guests on a hike into Tahquitz Canyon where they enjoyed a "Wiener Bake" before returning to the Woodfin home in Rancho Mirage for the ice cream and birthday cake, that was gaily decorated with a jet plane.

Helping Gregg celebrate were sister Robin, Sandy and Sherrie Riddle, Belinda Morehouse, Randy and Jan Svoboda, Joey Catron, Monte Gongwer, Mickey Kirk, Randy Patterson, Allen Ames and Larry and Dick Brubaker.

A SECOND PLAY, one of the most controversial on the international scene, is by the leading French writer Jean Paul Sartre who has captured many awards for his plays. It is planned to be the third production by the Playerstage.

Free Matinee, Lunch for Kids Set Saturday

A free lunch and matinee performance for children accompanied by an adult is scheduled at Desi Arnaz' Western Hills Hotel at noon Saturday, according to Manager Roy Russell.

The nationally famous team of chimpanzees named Cheeta and Chico and their trainer, Pinky Jackson, which appeared recently on the Ed Sullivan Show on TV, is now a nightly attraction at the popular resort hotel.

The adult escorts for the youngsters will be expected to pay for their own lunches, but the children will be the guests of the hotel for an appetizing lunch in the dining room. Luncheon will be served at 12 noon, and the show starts at 1 p.m.

Those who saw the act on TV or elsewhere will recall the chimps dancing, skating and ball playing, and other amazing feats. "We are going to try to have a real good time for the kids," Russell said, "and are making preparations for a large attendance."

Four different lengths were legally recognized as constituting the 12 inches of a foot until the U.S. Bureau of Standards came along in the early 1900's.

Presbyterian Women to Meet Next Wednesday

CATHEDRAL CITY—Luncheon reservations for the meeting of Presbyterian Women at the Palm Springs Community Church at 10 a.m., Wednesday, Jan. 28, should be made no later than today.

Women of the Cathedral City Community Church may make reservations at the church office FA 8-2734 or with Mrs. Edward Dering at FA 5-7323.

Speaker at this meeting will be the Rev. William A. Grubb, fraternal worker in Korea. Mrs. Edward Dering, president of the Women's Association of the Cathedral City Community Church, urges all members to attend this important meeting.

Ranchers Group Holds Meeting

PALM DESERT—The Silver Spur Ranchers Association, Inc., held its regular monthly board meeting at the Pink Plum Restaurant.

Officers who attended the meeting were Park Hancher, president; Karl V. Hane, vice-president; and Shirley St. Leon, secretary. Board members present included Albert Schaefer, Roy St. Leon, Al Merryman and Earl Torre.

Supervisor Jones Scoffs At Grand Jury Report

Scoffing at the 1958 Grand Jury report submitted to the Board of Supervisors this week by S. Thomas Bucciarelli, presiding judge of the Superior Court with whom it had been filed, Supervisor William Jones said it might be worthy of study but he doubted that it is worthy of consideration.

Jones made his comment after Supervisor Paul Anderson, board chairman, suggested that time be taken to study the voluminous 91 page report and that it be put on the Feb. 9 agenda for consideration.

JONES REFERRED specifically to a Grand Jury recommendation that the county sell its 20 acre property at the corner of Washington and Lincoln streets in Riverside and move the road yard and county garage now located there to property formerly used by the California Electric Power Co., which the Grand Jury said the county should purchase with monies obtained from sale of the Washington street property and the sale of 50 acres of the county hospital acreage in Arlington.

The Cal Electric property, on North Main Street in Riverside, is comprised of six and one-half acres with several large buildings including a warehouse with 60,000 square feet of space. The asking price is $424,000 and the site is a mile from the court house.

THE GRAND JURY committee which made a study of county space requirements said the Cal Electric warehouse could take care of 15 county departments in addition to affording ample space for storage. They estimated that with proper storage facilities savings in quantity purchases would amount to $300,000 annually.

Jones charged that Cal Electric sold the Grand Jury a "bill of goods," and said he couldn't see how the county could save $300,000 a year by buying in quantity lots.

RENTAL OF THE Cal Electric building on Eighth Street in Riverside which housed the power company's offices before its headquarters were moved to another city, or of the Elks Club building, was also recommended by the committee, to house the assessor, tax collector and auditor and make room for new courts until the county building program is realized.

The Elks Club building, vacated when the club moved to its new home, is across 11th Street from the court house, but the Cal Electric building is two and a half blocks from the court house.

"IF WE'RE GOING to study this Grand Jury report," said Supervisor Fred McCall, "we should find out who owns the Cal Electric properties." Administrative Officer Robert T. Anderson said that so far as he knows they are still owned by Cal Electric, but he said he will find out for sure.

Chairman of the Grand Jury committee on space requirements was Mrs. Melba Bennett of Palm Springs. While membership on the Grand Jury's other nine committees numbered from three to six, and the names of all members were listed, the space requirements committee apparently was a one-member undertaking with only "Melba Bennett, chairman" appearing on the committees listing.

THE ESTIMATED saving of $300,000 per year by quantity purchasing also appeared in the report of the Purchasing Department committee of which Mrs. Bennett was a member, with Clifford Babbin, chairman, and the other members R. B. Edmondson, Robert Helgeson and Van C. Metschke. The report stated that with county purchases totaling nearly $3,000,000 per year, the lack of warehouse facilities is costing the county close to $300,000 per year in unearned discounts.

As suggested by Supervisor Anderson, further discussion of the Grand Jury report is scheduled for Feb. 9.

Six Months' Work HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — "Porcy and Bess" has been completed as far as the main part of the photography is concerned, and the next six months will be devoted to technical work on the 2½-hour-long film. Producer Samuel Goldwyn expects to have its American premiere in New York in July.

Senior Class Play Ticket Sale to Start

Tickets will go on sale here Saturday for the Palm Springs High School senior class production of the play, "The Curious Savage."

Directed by high school drama teacher Bill Arnold, the play is scheduled for presentation Feb. 20 at the high school auditorium.

WRITTEN BY John Patrick, author of "Teahouse of the August Moon" and "The Hasty Heart," the play is a warm and original comedy of three acts and five scenes.

Its setting is the living room of "The Cloisters," a home for the "slightly mentally disturbed."

But the most interesting point of the play is the contrast between the "normal" inmates of the home, the children of Mrs. Savage and the "insane" outside world.

"THE CURIOUS Savage" was first introduced by the Theater Guild at Martin Beck's New York Theater in 1950.

Heading the high school cast is Donivie Ellison, who plays the part of the mother of the Savage children.

Senior Class President Gary Soule has the role of Senator Titus Savage. Frank Hilton will be seen as Judge Samuel Savage and Ann Daniel plays the part of Lilly Belle Savage.

OTHERS IN THE cast are David Siegel, as Hannibal; Linda Greaves, as Florence; Kathy Fitzpatrick, as Fairy May; George Nicholson, as Jeffrey; Sue Pallisgaard as Mrs. Paddy; Janet Griswold, as Wilhelmina, and Pat Barbara, as Doctor Emmett.

Judy Bagdasarian and Linda Thomas are stage prompters.

Tickets will go on sale noon, Saturday, at a booth in front of the Palm Springs Bank of America branch.

Modern Medicine

LIBERTY, N.Y. — (UPI) — A surgeon here piloted his personal plane 85 miles to New York City and back when he found that his patient needed three pints of rare blood available only in New York.

It took Dr. Carl Heins a little more than 30 minutes to fly to LaGuardia airport, where the Red Cross had sent the blood. Then he flew back to Liberty, where he and three other doctors operated on the patient, Emily O'Meara, for an intestinal obstruction.

Local Archery Team Wins Scout Tournament Here

A four-man archery team from Palm Springs Troop 77 won the eighth annual Riverside County Boy Scout Archery Tournament conducted at the Polo Grounds here.

The team, composed of Robert Frost, Paul Summers, Ezell James and Jay Rich, defeated a Riverside troop and a Scout delegation from March Air Base in winning the meet.

In individual marksmanship with bow and arrow, Village Scout Jay Rich took second place behind Riverside's David Small. In Class B, another Palm Springs Scout, George Lemmons, also of Troop 77, took a second behind Coachella Valley's Ken Detweiler.

Riverside won the Explorer team competition with a Palm Springs youth — Ricky Stewart of Troop 59 — taking first in Class B individual for the category.

U.S. Prepared To Resume Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is ready to resume above-ground tests of nuclear bombs "in a relatively short time" if the talks at Geneva on banning atom testing collapse. It may set off underground blasts in any case.

Chairman John A. McCone of the Atomic Energy Commission told a news conference that the testing grounds in the Pacific and in Nevada both are being kept ready.

Scientists figure that a tree must soak up about 1,000 tons of water to grow one ton of wood.

Early Selection Of Site For Junior College Desirable

All residents of the Coachella Valley are pleased to realize that the time has arrived for the selection of a site for the new Desert Junior College and that preliminary drafting of plans for the initial campus buildings are well under way.

At this stage it is natural that the directors of the new district will be faced with a voluminous and wide range of problems and important decisions, but since all are seasoned desert dwellers and well informed on the general differences distinct to the desert empire, there is every reason to believe that the combined experience of all will result in an excellently designed and highly satisfactory educational institution from every important standpoint.

One of the most promising indications at this juncture is the number and choice of well suited sites being offered. This is in sharp contrast to the usual situation in more thickly settled areas of the State. Advantages are thus favorable for selecting a choice site at competitive market prices. This is pleasing to the taxpayers from a cost standpoint, and to the faculty and students from the viewpoint of location and close proximity in attendance.

Inasmuch as voters were promised that the college would be situated approximately half way between Palm Springs and Indio prior to the bond election, and since this sector is in almost the exact population center of the district, it is to be hoped that the board keeps this uppermost in mind and complies closely in its final selection.

The matter of a mile or two in variation in either direction would not be consequent if well warranted, since in an institution of that size the extension of an access road or utilities is easily accomplished and at no appreciable cost. The more important thing is to maintain the equidistance balance between the two major cities which if seriously upset would create an unfair situation for one or the other of the communities.

Consultation with outside experts on formulating the college plant, the organization of staff and curriculum may be of considerable value and assistance to the board. Advisers from elsewhere may even have some helpful suggestions in site selection, although unfamiliar with our weather and regional peculiarities.

However, in the final analysis the responsibility for choosing a suitable site for the college within the area prescribed when the bond issue was submitted to the voters rests entirely with the members of the board elected by the people for that purpose.

The sooner a satisfactory site selection is made clearing the way for all other steps to follow, the happier all will be.

Roots Make the Branches

WASHINGTON, D.C. — President Eisenhower came, saw and to one member of the National Press Club last week, suggested a phenomenon which often occurs in the newspaper business. It happened on a paper where I once worked that we had an extremely energetic and capable leader, who having begun at or near the bottom, worked his way up to the summit position.

There came a day, however, when the trustees fired this editor-in-chief and gave him till the next coffee break to clear his desk and be gone. Did the paper collapse? Did it deteriorate? Did it, in truth, need this highest chief? Was he replaced by another?

IN EACH CASE, the answer is negative, and all newspapermen will know the reason why. If any institution is rugged and efficient, it doesn't have to rely on its topside leadership. A good newspaper is composed of hot-footed reporters, seeing-eye desk editors and imaginative front-office personnel.

In times of the institution's rude out-giving health, the least important person in the shop is likely to be the man at the crest. There are, of course, many splendid exceptions which do not alter the general rule. What's more, if he's the kind of man who deserves his top position, he knows its relative unimportance. He will strive, not to glorify his post, but to invigorate those posts beneath him.

THE ANALOGY, fits, I think, the position of President and the State of our Union. The Chief Executive, to be sure, has the constitutional duty of running the foreign policy and of dealing directly or by deputy with other chiefs of state. But the importance of foreign affairs has been dramatized and exaggerated beyond all reality in our times. We are in danger from other powers, but not entirely because the world is "smaller," as the international busybodies like to say in giving themselves the airs of inevitability. Our danger also comes because we have chosen to extend our propensity as "joiners" from Kiwanis and Rotary to military alliances and power politics.

BUT ON DOMESTIC matters, and these should be every President's study and delight, the Chief Executive of a healthy and energetic America should have a job that is honorable, sedentary, ceremonial and non-interventional.

By all accounts, this is the sort of post Mr. Eisenhower thought he was seeking in 1952 and also the sort he has insisted on making it. If there is any doubt as to Mr. Eisenhower's concept of the presidency, it should be dispelled by an analysis of his Press Club answers to members' questions. Among other things he pointed out:

THAT OUR GROSS national product of nearly $500 billion is still much bigger than the Federal budget of $77 billion. It should be apparent to the country (as it was to the President) that the civil economy still makes or breaks prosperity.

That the inefficiency of our out-sized Federal bureaucracy is dangerously hurtful to prudent government. This poses a problem of even greater primacy than the regrettable size of individual taxation. The President rejected an invitation to be a demagogue when he said that cost-cutting of government spending could balance his budget with $100 million to spare. This alone would improve any chance of tax-cutting "all along the line."

Domestically, then, the country has waged along for six years this month under a Chief Executive who prefers to stay pretty much removed except on foreign policy. Mr. Eisenhower (not long back from an extended vacation) was described in the local press as giving the appearance of ruddy good health.

It should be added—this description, rather surprisingly, applies to the domestic state of the nation. It could be that we don't need a "strong" President—not yet. —Holmes Alexander

THAT DOMESTIC prices are up "unconscionably" and that (although he was vague about this) the joint culprits and, therefore, the joint adjusters of the inflation were not so much government as Labor and Business.

That although the closing of some Southern schools was "tragic," the same adjective would be applicable if "we get the Federal government working by law in things that are known to be primarily State (responsibility)." This is as close as the President has publicly come to repenting his troops-to-Little Rock move of 1957-58. But this reporter learned on good authority shortly after that infamous military maneuver that it was regretted and would not be repeated—and it hasn't been.

THESE EXAMPLES will suffice to present Mr. Eisenhower as a hands-off President by inclination. The appearance he made at the Press Club showed how remarkably unchanged was Dwight Eisenhower from 1952. Those old "I Like Ike" campaign buttons are still very much in vogue. Ike is as well liked as ever, or almost. His preachment of the first campaign were largely of a balance-the-budget, reduce-the-size-of-government nature.

Domestically, then, the country has waged along for six years this month under a Chief Executive who prefers to stay pretty much removed except on foreign policy. Mr. Eisenhower (not long back from an extended vacation) was described in the local press as giving the appearance of ruddy good health.

It should be added—this description, rather surprisingly, applies to the domestic state of the nation. It could be that we don't need a "strong" President—not yet. —Holmes Alexander

It's great publicity for Palm Springs, too. The big tournaments go into the magazines, hit the press wires from coast to coast, and more people will learn about Palm Springs that way.

AND WHEN more learn about Palm Springs and want to hock the family jewels to come here, we'll need more golf courses to take care of them.

Next week we have the Seniors here, the nifty club swingers of 50 and over. Which reminds me—we should back our golf courses full-heartedly. For golf takes in all ages and occupations, from the school kids to the President of the United States.

Anybody here for a foursome at the 19th?

'C'mon—Giddap!

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Here in Palm Springs
It's got that tops.
The game has even Affected our cops.

Palm Springs lays claim to being the Winter Golf Capital of the World.
And, I think, we can rightly do so.

SURE, THERE are other places which have more golf courses than we have.

But, when you figure the number of golf courses in the Palm Springs area, per capita, we've got 'em beat.

And, the golf courses we have here are available during the Winter months.

In other spots, the grass on the greens is stiff with frost or buried under snow and the fairways are glaciers.

Not here.

NOW, TO GET BACK to the so-called verse which starts today's piece on its way.

We are truly the Golf Center and even the police have fallen into the idea.

They have pressed one of those electric golf carts which carries the players from tee to first lie and so on to the time the ball falls into the bucket, into service.

CHUCK TRAVERS is the pilot. The caddy cart rolls up, Indian Avenue and the side streets where there are meters.

And if any motorist has missed his putt and failed to put a nickel in the meter, Chuck tees off with a pink ticket.

The penalty for messing up the approach to the parking space by failing to hole out in the meter is not two strokes. It's two bucks. And no matter how good your lie is, it won't help you.

BY THE WAY, before going any farther, let me say right here that I don't believe in calling our officers of the law "cops."

I think that is a little disrespectful. Someone once suggested we call them out. Meaning officers of the law. But that doesn't sound good, either.

The only reason I used the word is because it rhymes with "tops."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The mail down at the post-office is pretty dull these days. Sales: (We are advising a few valued customers in advance.) Appeals for money: (As little as you would pay for a pair of shoes.)

I wonder whatever happened to my draft board?

I used to get some warm communications from them. Maybe I don't even have a draft board any more.

THEY WERE AN alert bunch. Letting a few valued customers know in advance. And not only offering a pair of shoes but the complete "Greetings."

My draft board was made up of fine, fatherly gentlemen—all beyond draft age. But they said they wished they were MY age.

They said I had a bracing future as a rifleman. I guess they knew. Because several of them had a powerful aroma of rifle whiskey.)

"YOU GET ROOM and board free. And the Sergeant is like a father to you."

"I would like to think it over." I said. "Not that I think well—I should tell you that I think very, very slowly. I am a retired type and would not like to lower the standards of your fine Army."

"It is a coincidence that you should mention that," said the chairman with a sly smile. "For we are looking for the more deliberate types."

"WE ARE LOOKING," said the chairman, "for types who are not nervous but stolid. Men who can repeat the General Orders and salute officers and pick up orange peels."

"I am dreadfully nervous," I cried.

"A-I," said the draft board in chorus. "Oh, definitely I-A."

WELL, I READ that drafting of civilians is dropping off in these chill war days. We are looking for push-button types—all thumbs.

We do not need very many. The next war will be like a house wife's dream. All labor-saving devices.

The recruiting posters these days stress the soft life. And the ribboned Sergeants tell terrible stories of the rough days when they were jammed in the Army at the point of a bayonet.

NONSENSE. I DID a little of this wartime recruiting myself. And of all the unblushing falsehoods! I press - agented the advantages of having your head blown off. Volunteer! (Volunteer or we'll come and get you.) Many mothers came with their healthy offspring. To see that they got the proper treatment.

"John never slept well even as a child. Do you think it will be too noisy in those barracks? And what about bad company?"

"They have been soundproofed. Madam. This is a very modern war. May I speak to you in confidence?"

"Of course."

"THE GENERAL — the one your son will be working for—is so tender-hearted there was some talk of putting him in charge of flower arrangements in the mess hall. As to bad company, the General's hobby is being a Boy Scout leader."

Shortly after that John was in greens impregnated against gas. Dipping homemade jungle juice and wondering where his replacement was coming from in case the opposition lowered their sights.

He needn't have worried. We were working on that.

I WOULDN'T MIND hearing from my old draft board. We could get together sometime. Cut up touches and see if there is anything I can do for them.

I gather that all us draftees will be underground this time. Nice, deep, lead-lined jobs. Something like a night club. Thumbing the buttons. While the civilians will be up and under the mushroom cloud without an umbrella.

My thumb is I-A gents. Let me hear from you.

EARL WILSON:

Full of Fight

NEW YORK—Sure, sure, John Bromfield, the TV star, was very handsome in his new uniform for "U. S. Marshall"—but my eyes kept straying to his wife, lovely Lari Thomas.

When she was a Broadway dancer just a season or so back, she was known to have the prettiest legs in town.

And now as we got onto the subject of legs—John's, not hers, because he had sprained one while making a TV film—I noticed as she was pouring us tea and coffee that Lari's were still champions.

"I have to do film fights and chase guys and jump off horses, so my legs are important to me," said Bromfield, who is also "the Sheriff of Cochise" on TV.

"I suppose you have a double to do your fights?" I said.

Lari flashed me a warning look that said, "Do you want to get your head knocked off?"

"No, I do all my own fights," the broad-shouldered, muscular Bromfield replied quietly. "And I refuse to do fights with other actors."

"Why?"

"They mostly don't know how to fight. I work best with fight doubles. They know how."

Bromfield mentioned an incident of last year. A young actor he was supposed to fight in a film declined to use a double. Bromfield asked him if he'd done any film fights and he said he had.

"We started and I noticed this guy wasn't dodging these hooks. He leaned into a right and he went down like a sack."

"They squawk—the sponsors—but about me doing my own fights, but if you use a stunt man, you have to move back too far from the camera to be realistic."

Bromfield's always fighting an old pal of his, Eddie Saenz, who was quarterback on the Venice, Cal., High School team on which he played left end. Saenz became top ground-gaining back for the University of Southern California, then went with the Redskins and is now a stunt man and double.

"My husband was the only end who never dropped a pass," Lari Thomas spoke up.

"Oh, don't mention that. It sounds corny as hell," said Bromfield, who was a star with the St. Mary's College Galleons and a heavy-weight fighter before becoming an actor.

Bromfield might as well be a fighter now, what with the rigid training schedule he has.

"I get up at 4:30 in the morning, study script for an hour, shave and shower, have breakfast, shoot from 7:30 a.m. till 8:15 p.m. ... go to bed about 9. Saturdays and Sundays I study script. It's a seven day job.

"And when I'm not shooting, I'm traveling. I covered 120,000 miles since March. Somebody said I was the most traveled actor in Hollywood. It's a killer."

"If it's a killer, how long do you mean to keep it up?"

"Another two years. That will make six years. I figure, sure, you kill yourself, but by then you will have a pretty good income, and you can pick and choose what you want to do next."

Whatever it is, it'll probably be something vigorous. Maybe you saw a movie that's played on TV, too, showing him hand-harpooning two whales with a crew of Eskimos helping dispose of the carcass. They were just itty-bits whales, only 70 or 80 tons. That's just one of his hobbies.

THE WEEK-END WINDUP... "DON'T PRINT THAT": One of the big-budget B-way shows is doing so poorly that balcony patrons are invited to sit in the orchestra, so the actors will have someone to work to. ... A singer who zoomed to overnight success in '58 has turned temperamental, refused 100 Gs in bookings.

Philip Crosby opened a string of TACOS stands in L.A.; his partner is football star Harlan Sorensen. ... Dorothy Arnold, at the Luan Platter with son Joe DiMaggio Jr., says she'll do a cafe act in Europe. ... Sir John Gielgud, who toured the country, was asked what impressed him most. He answered: "Disneyland". ... Maria Callas' mother is writing an explosive bio of her estranged daughter.

Comic Alan Drake made $600 at a Florida track, sent his agent ten per cent of it. ... What gives sponsors ulcers: The Longines watch for the most valuable player in a recent TV'd basketball game went to Elgin Baylor and is now a stunt man and double.

"My husband was the only end who never dropped a pass," Lari Thomas spoke up.

"Oh, don't mention that. It sounds corny as hell," said Bromfield, who was a star with the St. Mary's College Galleons and a heavy-weight fighter before becoming an actor.

Bromfield might as well be a fighter now, what with the rigid training schedule he has.

"I get up at 4:30 in the morning, study script for an hour, shaking his head over the "praise" given his food by Hope Hampton: "My moodie just loves your sandwiches." ... Lionel Hampton will tour Israel again, donate his pay to building a hospital.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

'Sunshine' Fare

HOLLYWOOD — Lana Turner, divesting herself of everything that reminded her of her old glamor-gal self, donated all the furniture she had stored in two floors of Bekins' Hollywood warehouse to the City of Hope.

Lana's favorite companion these days in the small, non-movie-star home she rented in Beverly Hills, is a copy of Khalil Gibran's "The Prophet," to which she turns for solace whenever she thinks of the Los Angeles Superior Court refusal to let her resume as legal guardian of her daughter, Cheryl Crane.

ARLENE DAHL and Fernando Lamas are ready to sign for two weeks in the New York City Center Theatre's production of "The King and I."

Allegro Vivace: Walt Disney, like Cezanne, has dipped his brush in sunshine for his newest movie, "Sleeping Beauty." And what a respite this beautifully Technicolored movie is from all the recent boy-rape-film trash they've been turning loose on us!

It's worth the price of admission just to see the lovely Princess Aurora move into a mad, mad mazurka with Walt's wonderful birds and rabbits with no more "slice-of-life" motivation than one of Pavlov's dogs. There hasn't been anything so sunny, so easygoing, since "Anchors Aweigh"—and thank you, Mr. Disney! ... P.S. The voices behind Aurora, her handsome Prince, etc., belong to Mary Costa, Bill Shirley, Taylor Holmes, Verna Felton, Barbara Jo Allen and Bill Thompson.

SINGER GOGI Grant will wed attorney Rob Rivkind, the man who secured her divorce for her. Alackaday, Dick Long and his wife, starlet Mara Corday, called it a day and this time for aye.

Lloyd Nolan, backstage for a change to produce his first play, "The Passionate Men," is nudging another man-and-wife team, Laurence Harvey and Margaret Leighton, to play the leads.

GROUCHO MARX and a Boy Scout will do a surprise walk-on for the opening night of Pat O'Brien's revival of "The Front Page" at Hollywood's Theatre of Arts. Pat asked me to play the part of the Chicago newspaperman, "Wilson"—Pat and Mike, get it?—but I turned it down on the grounds that reporters should report and not act.

Instead, my part-time legman, actor John Bradford (formerly John Briggs of Aurora, Ill.), took the part. ... Dorothy Lamour bowed out of this show, incidentally, in order to front-center the Mardi Gras in her home town, New Orleans, for NBC's "Monitor," and Doris Dowling replaced her.

ONLY "ACTING" on tap for this reporter this season will be to M.C.—M.C. as M.C.—James Francis Cardinal McIntyre's annual Motion Picture Workers' Breakfast at the Hollywood Palladium Feb. 1.

Jane Wyman will read a special message from Msgr. John Devlin of the Legion of Decency and Lawrence Welk and the Lennon Sisters will supply the music.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Movie producer Jerry Wald forgot to pay his union dues during his recent illness so the American Federation of TV and Radio Artists suspended him. Wald, Wald, "Now I won't be able to do any more guest spots on the Jack Benny show!"

Note accompanying my 1959 pass to Marineland: "Please come out and see Bubbles the Whale. When people don't come to see her Bubbles cries—and we can't stand watching 1,600 pounds of blubbering blubber!"

Strange warning from a TV network's tax expert: "All employees should be alerted that all monies embezzled must be included in total earnings when filling out tax forms."

JUNE LOCKHART'S tiny daughter Anne will soon be a regular on Mom's Lassie series. Dwayne Hickman and starlet Tuesday Weld showed up for their first day of work on Fox-TV's new Adventures of Dobie Gillis series and Dwayne triggered Tuesday into tears (as required by the script) with this off-the-cuff line: "How can such a beautiful body contain such a grubby soul?"

DAVID NELSON and Ronnie Burns are both pitching in Margie Granger's league. Margie is the ex-Tropicana chorus girl who sexplored in her first movie, "Al Capone."

Fibber McGee and Molly, long one of radio's most popular shows, will return via TV—but without the original stars, Marian and Jim Jordan, who fear that they've "grown out of it." It's an NBC-TV venture.

Julia Meade, Ed Sullivan's co-commercial speller, snagged a big part in the new MGM movie, "Village of the Damned." It's her first picture.

Quotes from the News

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn, commenting on his party's plans for a year-round campaign program to answer the challenge of labor help to the Democrats:

"We're not going to be able to match that, but we need more staff to work full time. We oppose an army of full time troops with volunteers working only two months."

MONTREAL, Que. — Construction executive R. G. Johnson, on the necessity of limiting construction activities at the Churchill, Manitoba, air base to daylight hours due to nocturnal visits from polar bears:

"Judging by progress reports, those polar bears don't scare so easily. We've had to limit construction work to the six-hour winter daylight period to be on the safe side."

NEW YORK — A Brooklyn grand jury presentment, in calling for legislation which would permit New York school teachers to paddle unruly students:

"This grand jury has found ample evidence showing a direct connection between the nambypamby attitude of the educational hierarchy and the collapse of discipline in the schools."

WASHINGTON — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, mourning the death of movie producer Cecil B. DeMille:

"The world loses one of the truly great showmen of all times. In his productions, he had the special talent of bringing to life both history and religion in a most meaningful way, which has significantly increased the nation's understanding of the events which shaped the early world."

DES MOINES, Iowa — GOP Congressional Campaign Committee Chairman Richard M. Simpson in answering President Eisenhower's call on the Republican Party to stop acting like a sleeping elephant and to spell out the national goals of the party:

"I call upon the White House to state this long range purpose of the Republican Party, to give us a statement of principles for which we can stand."

Trailer Rally Acclaimed as 'Greatest Ever'

Palm Springs Area Trailer Parks Association President Merle Hancock told more than 150 trailer park people at the association's annual installation dinner, that its 1958 trailer rally and show was "the greatest ever."

Hancock reported that for the first time the trailer park association sent out a publicity crew to cover the western states to rally-hoo the annual Palm Springs rally. This team passed out 9,000 pieces of literature and talked to some 1,170 persons.

THE OCTOBER show drew a total of 540 trailers and an estimated 50,000 persons during the three days. This was contrasted with the first trailer rally which drew a total of 50 trailers and 2,500 persons.

Palm Springs desert area today has a total of 5,500 trailer spaces, according to the association president.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER at the dinner was District 4 Supervisor George Berkey, who explained the new tax assessment of trailer parks in the area, and told the owners how they could legally protest the assessment if they did not think it was fair. He also talked on state issues, including water for Southern California, and the improved highway system for the state.

The association also announced the appointment of Paul Harrison as permanent executive secretary of the association.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: An acquaintance of mine recently had a nose job and I am wondering if it would be proper for me to say anything about the operation or should I let it go unnoticed.

LINDA
DEAR LINDA: People resort to plastic surgery because they hope it will make a noticeable improvement in their appearance. Avoid using expressions such as "nose job" or "bad job" — but do comment on how lovely she (or he) looks.

DEAR ABBY: I am a senior in High School and I am not bragging when I say I have a very good reputation. I date on Friday and Saturday nights and have to be in by 12:30 sharp, and I always am. Last Friday I had a date with a boy who carried a pint of whiskey in his glove compartment. He started drinking and driving recklessly so I got out of the car and walked home. I had to walk four miles and didn't get home until 3:00 a.m. My parents were furious and took away my dating privileges for three months. I think I used good judgment and shouldn't have been punished for it. What is your opinion?

PUNISHED UNJUSTLY
DEAR PUNISHED: Your decision to refuse to ride with a drunken driver was excellent, but no girl should walk four miles alone at three a.m. You'd have been wiser to have called your father, a taxi, or even the Police Department for a ride home.

DEAR ABBY: My wife died four years ago and none of my four married children offered me a home with them. I own a nicely-furnished house but it was lonely coming home to an empty house every night and eating in restaurants. A respectable widow lady who cleans my house and does my laundry agreed to move into an upstairs bedroom (mine is downstairs) and I was glad to have her. I am 64 and she is 62. My children raised such a fuss you'd think we were doing something immoral (which I give you my word we are not.) Should I ask this lady to move out or should I tell my children to leave me alone?

PAPPA
DEAR PAPPA: There is nothing wrong with having a housekeeper live in your home. Tell your children to mind their morals and you'll mind yours.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CHAIR" about offering your services to a MAN OF THE BORED: How Volunteer Organization? If you aren't giving, you aren't living.

INVEST NOW IN THE '$50,000,000 'MIRACLE in the DESERT' SALTON CITY!

at Fabulous Salton Sea

Somebody once called the Salton Sea "nature's magnificent mistake" because it was formed by accident 54 years ago. We call this 384-square mile sea in the desert a "miracle" — and with good cause. Where else can you swim beneath snow-capped peaks under warm desert sun...? Find a million fish weighing up to 30 pounds at your front door? Sail, swim, water ski, hunt, snow ski, golf and fly right around the year?

And SALTON CITY — on the shore of the sparkling sea — is in the center of the miracle. SALTON CITY is man's masterfully-planned community where homes are springing up... where there are marinas for boating, sailing and skiing enthusiasts... where hotels, motels and all kinds of businesses are under construction... where roads are being paved at the rate of 1 1/2 miles a day!

Yes — Salton City is the $50,000,000 miracle in the desert! We invite you to investigate — then invest in our boundless future!

July 1 Lighting Approved at DHS

Installation of six additional lights in the Desert Hot Springs Lighting District was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week, but because the district made no provision in its 1958-59 budget for financing the project, and there is not sufficient reserve available in its funds, it was stipulated that the lights are not to be installed until after July 1, 1959, the beginning of the new fiscal year, when money is expected to be available.

The lights will be installed at the intersections of Pierson Boulevard, Acoma Street and Buena Vista, with Via Real and Cholla.

Ferree, Harney Pace Invitational

Post 66s to Lead by One After First Day

Paul Harney of Worcester Mass., and Jim Ferree of Winston-Salem, N.C., came in with a late afternoon rush to break up a nine-way deadlock and take the first day lead in the Eighth Annual Thunderbird Country Club Invitational yesterday with 66s.

First Day

PRO DIVISION

|               |       |
|---------------|-------|
| Paul Harney   | 32-34 |
| Jim Ferree    | 36-30 |
| Wes Ellis     | 36-31 |
| Bob Rosburg   | 36-31 |
| Doug Ford     | 34-33 |
| Don Fairfield | 34-33 |
| Arnold Palmer | 34-33 |
| Billy Casper  | 34-33 |
| Bob Goalby    | 34-33 |
| Billy Maxwell | 34-33 |
| Marty Furgot  | 34-33 |

Eddie Susalla, Indian Wells Country Club pro, and his three amateur teammates, John Curci, Indian Wells prexy, Robert Pierce and Clark Bramwell, were in front after the first day's play in the Pro-Member.

Susalla carded a 77 but had a 23 stroke assist from his mates to card a 54. It was Curci's 15-foot putt that did it.

THE FIRST DAY'S play, was a victory for the collegians, once a rarity in pro golf. Harney is from Holy Cross and Ferree from North Carolina.

In one of the most closely bunched fields in PGA history, nine more men—six of them college graduates—were deadlocked only one stroke off the pace at 57. They were: Arnold Palmer, Bob Rosburg, Billy Casper, Wes Ellis, Billy Maxwell, Bob Goalby, Doug Ford, Marty Furgot and Don Fairfield.

WHILE HARNEY and Ferree played real well, a lot of glory fell to the amateurs, who finish their competition today. Pro Mike Souchak, who shot a 69, got 13 strokes help from his teammates for a 56, second in the Pro-Am.

Two-time champion Jimmy Demaret, who came in with a 69, also got a lot of assistance from his partners—including Bing Crosby, for a best ball of 57.

ANOTHER 57 was posted by Lloyd Mangrum's team—with a huge assist from Desi Arnaz. Desi, who never before broke 80 on a golf course, shot a 75, including a two-stroke penalty for a ball out of bounds.

Defending champion Ken Venturi had a 68 in the pro division, along with Mangrum, Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, and Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex.

Honolulu Racer Wins at Salton

Ron Rima of Honolulu and Bob Martin, Long Beach shared high-point honors in the first annual Salton City Chamber of Commerce, Salton City Regatta which was witnessed by more than 5,000 spectators at the newly constructed Salton Bay Marina at Salton City last weekend.

Williams to Sign For 125 Grand

BOSTON (UPI) — Slugger Ted Williams was slated to saunter into Fenway Park today and sign with the Boston Red Sox for another $125,000 salary.

Honig Wins Again At Shuffleboard

George Honig was the winner, for the second straight week, in the Men's Shuffleboard tournament at Horizon Trailer Park. Whitey Mead won second place.

A gold loving cup will be awarded the winner of the most points at the end of the season.

Johansson Slated To Arrive Today

NEW YORK (UPI) — Unbeaten Ingemar Johansson was scheduled to arrive by plane from Sweden today to complete negotiations and probably sign for a June title fight with world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

JIM FERREE shot a 66 to go into a tie with Paul Harney for the lead after 18 holes of the Thunderbird Invitational.

Arcaro Has Five Winners to Lead Arcadia Jockeys

ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI) — Round Table, beaten in his first start of the winter, turns to the grass course at Santa Anita Saturday in quest of his initial win of 1959 in the $25,000 added San Marcos Handicap.

Round Table was assigned his customary 132 pounds and again will have Willie Shoemaker riding him. Anxious Moment, a strong grass course runner, has Eddie Arcaro as his rider while Johnny Longden is scheduled to ride Tall Chief II which probably will go as an entry with Round Table.

Arcaro probably never had a better day than Thursday at Santa Anita, but it was just about the opposite for national champion Shoemaker.

Arcaro equaled a track record by scoring with five winners, something only five other men, including Willie Shoemaker, ever have done.

His big win was aboard Warhead in the $15,000 San Marino Handicap.

Shoemaker, on the other hand, fell from his mount—Romanarco—in the third race when the animal stumbled. He escaped unhurt and rode Mark's Puzzle in the next race.

But Jewel's Reward, the Shoemaker mount in the San Marino, was a disappointing fourth after going off the favorite.

The famed Shoemaker didn't have a winner all day and lost his jockey lead to Arcaro for the meeting.

HEADS YACHT COUNCIL

NEW YORK (UPI) — Olin Stephens II of Scarsdale, N. Y., has been re-elected president of the American Boat and Yacht Council.

McDougal Joins Hold Out Ranks

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gil McDougald, Roy Sievers and Jackie Jensen all were in the same boat today, threatening to rest on their oars indefinitely until they get more money.

McDougald thus joined a growing list of Yankee ball players who are balking at a cut. The group includes Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron.

McDougald, who received an estimated $35,000 last season, said he had been asked to take a cut of more than $4,000. He added that everyone else he had talked with on the club also had been offered a reduction.

"I don't want to get mad," he said. "The Yankees are a wonderful organization. But I don't know any reason for these pay cuts. It's not right."

Right or not, the only Yankee

First Baseball Practice Set for Next Sunday

Plans for Sunday baseball for Palm Springs were set in motion last night at a meeting of Villagers at The Barn restaurant and an active season is in the making as several games have already been lined up.

First practice of the season will be held next Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Polo Grounds.

Coach and Manager John Markinko said that there are still several places open on the squad and urged all interested to turn out for the practice sessions.

Next meeting and practice is scheduled for Thursday night at the Polo Grounds.

EDDIE SUSALLA, pro at Indian Wells, and his teammates led the field in the Pro-Member portion of the Thunderbird $15,000 Invitational today. (Desert Sun Photo)

Rancho Mirage

"In the heart of Southern California's fabulous desert playground"

Located 12 miles from Palm Springs, just past Cathedral City on Highway 111, is one of the finest communities in America — Rancho Mirage.

The major portion of the Rancho Mirage properties are situated on the west side of the highway, and extend into a protective cove formed by the picturesque Santa Rosa mountains. As a result, the community is completely free from extreme winds, and enjoys up to one and one-half hours more sunshine per day than other locations in the area.

This ideal smog-free climatic condition... its proximity to all the area's major golf clubs and a new, complete shopping center... plus its location at the hub of a road network leading to all the important communities and points-of-interest in the Coachella Valley, have already accounted for the settlement in Rancho Mirage of many civic, business and professional leaders, as well as some of the entertainment industry's most important figures.

In addition to its many other advantages, an elaborate electronic system insuring excellent reception of Los Angeles television stations has just been completed and is available to the residents of Rancho Mirage.

You are cordially invited to visit Rancho Mirage to inspect a showcase of executive homes, all custom-engineered for year-round desert living... all with refrigerated air conditioning.

Estate-size home sites, offering magnificent panoramic views of the entire desert area, are also available.

97 to Compete in Pro-Member Play at Eldorado Next Week

Top Pros Entered In Event

Drawings were being made today and pairings in the $7,500 Eldorado Pro-Member tournament, scheduled for next Monday and Tuesday will be posted tonight. William Daugherty, club manager, said today.

Twenty four of the nation's leading pros, now on the winter tournament circuit, will team up with three Eldorado Club members each, for the 36-hole medal play.

TEE-OFF TIME for the 96 golfers is 8:31 a.m. Monday with 18 holes scheduled each day. Besides the $7,500 pot for the pros, handsome prizes will go to club members of winning teams in the Pro-Am.

J. Ross Clark II is tournament chairman and is being assisted in the details by Mike Portik, club pro, and Bud Hofmeister, reigning pro. Hofmeister is pro at the Hayden Lake Country Club in Idaho during the summer months.

AMONG THE PROS who will move over to Eldorado at the conclusion of the Thunderbird Invitational Sunday afternoon are Art Wall Jr., winner of the Bing Crosby Pebble Beach tourney and Ken Venturi, winner of the Los Angeles Open.

Others in the field include Frank Stranahan, house guest of Robert McCulloch, Eldorado president, Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, Tommy Bolt, Gene Littler, and a number of other leading pros.

Tickets for Winter Games Going Fast

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Ticket sales for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif., have already surpassed the $300,000 mark, the games organizing committee reported today.

National League To Play Record 296 Night Games

CINCINNATI — (UPI) — The National League Thursday announced a record of 296 night baseball games for the coming 1959 season—a mark directly traceable to heat in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Because it gets almost hot enough to fry an egg on home plate when the midsummer sun is blasting the floor of the sun-baked Coliseum, the Los Angeles Dodgers have announced they will play a league record 63 games at night this year.

That's a jump of 17 over the total of arc-lighters played by the Dodgers last year.

Others to schedule a boost in night play were the St. Louis Cardinals, who jumped from 44 to 46, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, who went up 4 to 37. The Philadelphia Phillies bucked the trend, dropping from 47 to 46. The Cincinnati Reds stand pat at 45, Milwaukee holds at 38, San Francisco remains at 21, and the Chicago Cubs once again will be the only team in the big leagues which will play all its home games in daylight.

The 1959 NL season will open on April 9 with one game—Pittsburgh at Cincinnati in the afternoon. All other teams will open the following day, Milwaukee at Pittsburgh and Los Angeles at Chicago, San Francisco at St. Louis and Cincinnati at Philadelphia.

Most of the Fighting Won't Be Done in the Ring this Year

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Is it all in Cus D'Amato's mind? Or are we about to sit in on a knockdown, drag-out battle for promotional supremacy, the like of which the fight game never saw before?

During four months of cloak-and-dagger negotiations for the Floyd Patterson-Johannesson heavyweight title bout, D'Amato—manager of champion Patterson—charged repeatedly that friends of the International Boxing Club were trying to block his every move.

Whether he was wrong or right, no one knew for sure.

BUT WE SHOULD'N'T be kept long in suspense, after Patterson and Johannesson have been signed. For this is the big one! This is a promoter's dream—an international classic between an American world champion and an unbeaten European champion.

This million-dollar match is the one that could provide the war chest and the reputation for a new promotional dynasty, just as the historic meeting between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier of France in 1921 actually provided Tex Rickard with the gold and glory that boosted him to promotional supremacy. Before Dempsey and Carpentier attracted boxing's first million-dollar gate, there were other promoters who could challenge Tex. If this Patterson-Johannesson fight is staged, and proves the tremendous financial success it promises, it could make young Bill Rosenzohn the number one promoter—regardless of which fighter wins; for he is a warm friend of both camps.

AND EVEN BEFORE this match is signed, Rosenzohn announces frankly that he hopes it will enable him in some way to grab off one of the two weekly TV fight-shows, indirectly controlled by the IBC.

Under the circumstances, if D'Amato has any basis for his persistent accusations against the IBC, we can look for a lively summer. The IBC can't fight against the federal anti-trust de-

Gymkhana Set For Tomorrow At Ranch Club

A Western gymkhana will be held at 10 a.m., tomorrow, in the Ranch Club corral, the club announced yesterday.

Under the direction of Wayne and Irene Cline, the Ranch Club's stable operators, competition in the following events will be held: 10 a.m.—Seat and hands (14-17 years), Western pleasure (13 and under).

1 p.m.—Grand Entry: Trail class (14-17 years), trail class (13 and under), Western pleasure (14-17 years), Seat and hands (13 and under), Bareback (17 and under), Pole bending (17 and under), and Barrel race (17 and under).

Jordan Hedges On Akins Match

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Don Jordan's manager disclosed plans for the lanky champion's next non-title bout today, but hedged on whether the Geronimo Kid will duck out on a contracted rematch with former champion Virgil Akins.

Respectable Don Neseth, elated over Jordan's impressive third round knockout of Alvaro Gutierrez Thursday night, said the 24-year-old champion will appear in an over the weight 10 - rounder sometime next month in Oakland.

Chuck Daigh Signs For 500-Mile Race

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Charles (Chuck) Daigh, 35, Long Beach, today signed to drive the J. C. Agajanian Special in this year's Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Local Golfer Runs Over Self

Palm Desert—Jan. 20 — Tom McMillan, 637 Camino La Paloma, well-known golf figure, ran over himself today. McMillan, apparently tired of waiting for his restor to show him the fabulous new El Dorado Palms Development adjoining Indian Wells, Golf Course decided to run over himself. If you haven't seen this garden spot of the desert, why not run over yourself today? ADV.

Indians Meet Hemet High Here Tonight

Tribe Battles to Remain in Race For RCL Crown

Coach Jim Workman's Palm Springs High Indians, back in contention in the Riverside County League basketball race and back on the home floor again, host Hemet High tonight in two cage games, the Bee game at 7 and the varsity at 8.

The Braves with a 3-2 mark to date are tied for third with Elsinore while Hemet, 1-4 so far, is in seventh place.

Workman found a winning combination against Beaumont Tuesday and will probably start the same five tonight.

IN GAMES so far in the RCL, the Tribe has scored 248 points and given up 226 in three wins and two losses.

Hemet has scored 212 against 238 for its opponents winning one and losing four.

Palm Springs Bees face a tougher time as Hemet is well up in the junior race.

THE PAPOOSE outfit has won 2 and lost three, scoring 159 points and yielding 170. Hemet Bees have won three and lost two, scoring 218 to 201 for their rivals.

In other games tonight, Elsinore, (3-2) goes to Coachella (4-1) in what looks like the hottest game on the schedule.

Banning (5-0) and leading the loop should have little trouble at Perris (2-3) while Beaumont (2-3) expects to trim San Jacinto (0-5) without too much difficulty.

Palm Springs entertains its arch rival, Coachella, here next Tuesday in a fight for second place.

Beach Club Honors Greta Anderson

LONG BEACH (UPI) — Distance swimmer Greta Anderson today held the Athlete of the Year Award of the Long Beach Century Club presented at its third annual Sports Night Banquet.

Mazzulla Five Gives Laurye's Hard Fight

Mazzulla Masonry, haunted by fouls and dwarfed by superior height, put up a grand battle at Palm Springs High School gym last night before falling, 53-41, to Laurye's Steak Ranch.

In the first game, Smoke Tree Stables hit the comeback trail with a 39-39 win over Chuck's Welding.

The Mazzulla-Laurye's tilt was the surprise of second half play thus far. A heavy favorite to win "by as much as they want," Laurye's found itself outplayed, outplayed and outscored throughout the first half. Mazzulla led, 16-12, at the end of the first period, and 26-24 at the half.

MAZZULLA COULD conceivably have fared even better had it not lost its ace—Joe Mazzulla—on fouls early in the third frame.

Mazzulla rang up 15 points in the time he did play. Another Mazzulla star, Andy Phillip, fouled out late in the fourth quarter. He garnered 13 points. Joe Strange of the Mazzulla team netted 12 points for the losers effort.

After Mazzulla fouled out, Laurye's came to life and started controlling the backboards as has been their custom.

Don Stone and Dick Hough garnered high point honors for the victors with 14 and 13 points, respectively. Charlie Brown netted eight points for Laurye's.

In the first game, Wayne Clines netted 20 points and Smoke Tree Stables roared to its decisive win. Sam Jones dunked 14 points and Vic Reyes garnered 10.

Dennie Erickson netted 16 points for Chuck's Welding and Dick Garcia had 11 points.

Players Contest Given Extension

PALM DESERT—An extension of the contest to find a suitable name for the proposed building which will house the productions of the Palm Desert Players, has been announced by the Players' publicist, Eloise Carpenter.

The new date set for the close of the contest is Feb. 28, according to Miss Carpenter, who added that the extension was by popular demand.

Desert Museum Featured in Desert Magazine

PALM DESERT—Palm Springs' privately supported Desert Museum has established a precedent in community service which might well be a pattern for many other such educational centers in the Desert Southwest, believes editor Randall Henderson of Desert Magazine.

The story of the Museum and its $90,000 facility appears in the February issue of Desert, now on the newsstands.

In the article, Henderson writes: "The desert is indeed a fascinating land to those who look behind and beyond the grim mask of its arid landscape—to the miracle of life that has survived and thrives in its seemingly sterile sands and the heat of its blazing summer sun."

Gardening in the Desert

For a while the average amateur gardener is apt to put—fertilizing purposes—most reliance on steer manure, peat moss, humus and leaf mold. Then, either from studying the ads in magazines or by criticism from a friend, he learns of various fertilizers that come in smaller paper bags with N.P.K. or 10-8-6 plainly printed on the label.

He soon learns that N.P.K. stands for a mixture of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, and the figures 10-8-6 stand for 10 per cent nitrogen, 8 per cent phosphorus and 6 per cent potassium. He is now on the way to chemically fertilizing.

EMBRACING ONLY the western states he'll find at least 45 manufacturers of chemical fertilizers with 36 different analyses, seldom will he find a product sharing the same N.P.K. mixtures. The fact is that manufacturers are now pondering on higher and naturally more expensive mixtures, and we might possibly see labels denoting 20-20-10 or even higher numbers. They will no doubt plainly state the amount to be used at each fertilizing.

We read of 8-8-4 for citrus or even 11-8-4, special mixtures for diondrea, and roses; cottonseed and other meals have their N.P.K. rating plainly marked on the label. Nobody can doubt that horticultural chemistry is here to stay and will donate much to growers.

YEARS AGO YOUR grandparents most likely relied on all kinds of manure and the old compost barrel without the use of alphabetically marked chemicals. If they are alive today they either stick to their guns and claim theirs was the best way, or sit back and admire the results attained by chemistry.

Despite this advance we still need bags of steer manure—marked weed-free—for its organic help to the soil; peat moss and leaf mold also are of assistance even if they only read 11-1 in the chemical fertilized rating. They are excellent, together with the sandy soil, for retaining water and the chemicals which, on the desert, are prone to soon vanish into the deeper sand before the plant has full benefit from their nutrient.

MANY GROWERS mix superphosphate with the soil and manure to bind the soil together. The chemists who have worked so hard and have brought us this far are not prone to claim they have reached 100 per cent Mother Nature can be pigheaded at times; the minerals that produce the phosphorus get hungry and a plant feels the effect, often the soluble potassium disappears too fast and there's a little potassium left in the soil, even the nitrogen might be washed down by too much water and there's little left over for the plant.

Despite all this, horticultural chemistry has done wonders in helping plant growth and decorating our gardens. The once-a-year chemically fertilizing idea is poppy-cock; with the possible exception of huge old trees once a year is certainly not sufficient, especially in the porous sands of the desert.

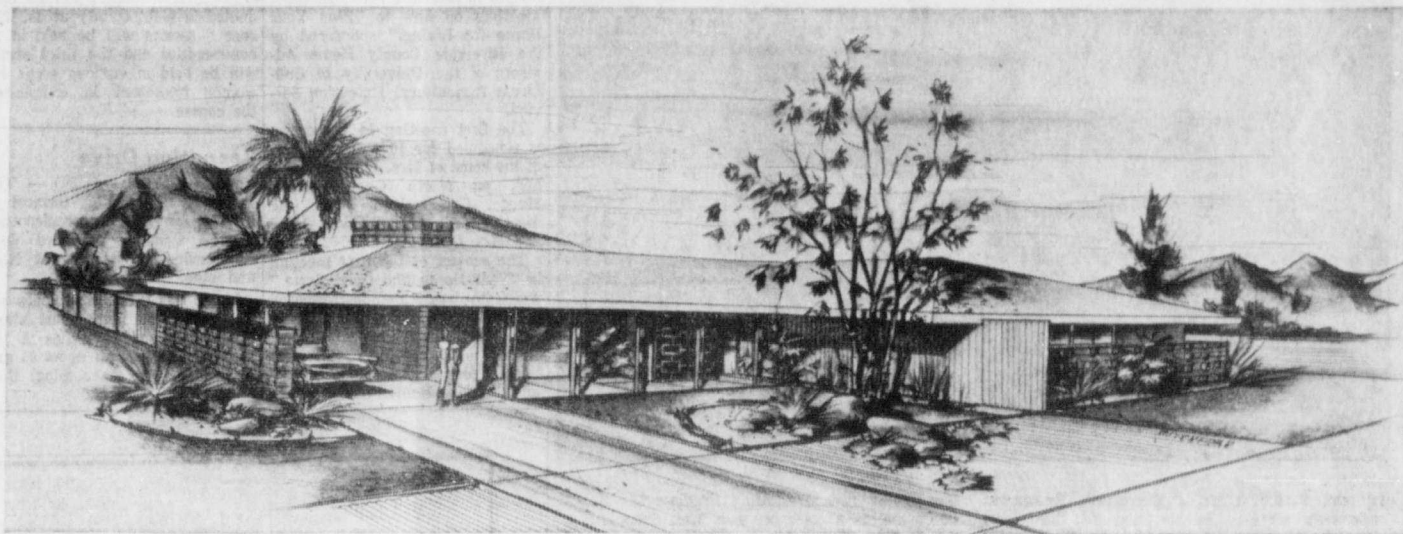

Personally we feel that once every three months or even more frequently would bring excellent results. Now if the chemists could only discover a mixture that would eliminate aphids for ever we would be happy.

THE FIRST "DESERT DREAM" Home of Rancho Mirage Properties, Inc., was completed this week. Harold B. Garfield, company president announced today. The luxurious three-bedroom home is the first in a Rancho Mirage project encompassing more than 900 homes and a $1 million shopping center, which is now under construction. Elliott Caplow, resident manager for the company, said the Rancho Mirage Dream Homes, located on the west side of Highway 111, feature three bedrooms, five-ton refrigerated air conditioning, built-in ranges and ovens, artistic fireplaces, two-car carports and heated swimming pools. All homes have been engineered for television and hi-fi and range in price from $34,500 to $41,500. Landscaped by William Nugent, the model home is decorated by Vee Nisley.

RANCHO MIRAGE PROPERTIES ANNOUNCES DREAM HOME

RANCHO MIRAGE—Harold B. Garfield, president of Rancho Mirage Properties, Inc., and a partner of Desser & Garfield, nationally known community developers, today announced the completion of their first "Desert Dream" home in the Rancho Mirage Properties.

There are a wide range of architectural interior and exterior designs; with each home having three bedrooms. All homes have 5-ton G. E. refrigerated air-conditioning units, built-in ranges and ovens, artistic fireplaces, 2-car carports and 16 by 32 heated swimming pools. ALL HOMES HAVE been engineered for hi-fi and television. Prices range from $34,500 to $41,500.

The Rancho Mirage Properties are situated on the west side of Highway 111, offering a panoramic view of the desert area and surrounding mountains.

THE RANCHO Mirage project, when completed, will have over 900 homes, a $1,000,000 planned community shopping center with off-street parking which will include a master Safeway market, a bakery, women's and children's apparel, men's haberdashery, laundromat, cleaners, family shoe store, sandwich shop, hardware and appliance store and a complete Professional Pharmacy.

Negotiations are also under way with a large oil company to build a modern service station on the property.

Landscaped by William Nugent, noted desert landscape artist, each home is individually treated and the model home is decorated by Dee Nisley. Elliott Caplow is the resident manager.

MR. AND MRS. DICK Garvin were presented with the "Key to Sandpiper" by Sales Manager Jack Enders in recognition of their being the first to occupy their new garden apartment. Although

Mr. and Mrs. Garvin have been residents of the valley for some ten years, they hail originally from Oklahoma City, Okla., where Mr. Garvin operated a group of dry goods stores.

El Dorado Palms Homes Qualify As Medallion

PALM DESERT — El Dorado Palms Estates, new luxury housing development bordering Indian Wells and Eldorado Country Club golf courses at Palm Desert, will qualify as Medallion-Award homes under the national Live Better Electrically program it was announced this week.

Certification that these homes meet the standards of the national and area program for electrical wiring, lighting and installed electrical appliances will be made by California Electric Power Co. Estimated as a 7-million dollar development, El Dorado Palms Estates will include 135 homes. Heading the development is Thomas C. McMillan, owner of mortgage companies extending across the U.S., including New York, Los Angeles and San Diego.

According to the announcement from Cal Electric, the Medallion-Award program is now in its second year and marks "the first time in construction history that a national hallmark of excellence in electrical living has been established for the builders of new homes."

Women Invited To 'Home' Meet

Resort area women were today invited to attend a series of three meetings on how to "Plan Your Home for Living," sponsored by the Riverside County Home Advisors of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service.

The first meeting in the series is scheduled for 10 a.m., Jan. 27, at the home of Mrs. William Gardner, on North Grant Street, Mecca. Group leaders for the meeting are Mrs. Sheldon Orson and Mrs. Gladys Smille.

The subject of the first meeting is "Your Home and Good Taste," which involves a demonstration on the application of art principles to home furnishings.

Subsequent meetings will concern "Your Home and Color," and "Your Home and Pattern and Design." The first meetings will be conducted in eight county areas. The second session will be held in 21 communities and the third series will be held in various areas for women interested in completing the course.

Recruiting Drive

WASHINGTON —(UPI)— The Army Quartermaster General is looking for 1,000 inconspicuously colored German shepherd dogs for service as sentries at Nike and other missile bases.

Males less than three years old are preferred. They must stand between 22 and 28 inches at the shoulders and weigh about 60 and 90 pounds. One other thing: they must not be gunshy.

Luncheon Compliment Returned

Mrs. John Q. McClure, who was the surprised guest of honor recently, when Mrs. John F. Luccareni hosted a birthday luncheon for her at the Tennis Club, returned the compliment Wednesday, when she hosted the same group at luncheon.

The group, which gathered first in the Venetian Room, found the luncheon table in the Bougainvillea Room, bright with gift packages of bubble bath salts. Here from Los Angeles for a few days, Mrs. Franklin MacCarthy, who was unable to attend the original luncheon, joined the little group of friends.

Other guests were Meses. John Luccareni, William B. Malouf, Joseph Froggatt, George O. Wheeler, Randolph Christie, Dolph Oberfel, John Costello, Harry Joe Brown, Henry Dollard, Austin McManus, Joan McManus, Hildy Crawford and Miss Beth Scott.

This is the night to get into your western clothes and head for the Ranch Club . . . where Joyce and Noel Clarke are celebrating their fourth anniversary as owners . . . with a chuckwagon dinner . . . a feature of the Club . . . There will be music and entertainment in the infectious style of Duke Mitchell . . . and pretty Clessa Williams will be singing with the Hal White orchestra . . . and who knows what else . . . Topping dinner will be a huge anniversary cake . . . and as usual it will be decorated in western motif . . . But this time . . . something new has been added . . . and the chef is working in the golfing theme . . . in honor of the Club's new course . . .

Helen and Earle Henderson have sent out invitations this week . . . and will host a party of around 100 . . . at cocktails, dinner and show at the Chi Chi on the evening of January 25 . . . This will be the second night of the Dennis Day show . . .

Peggy Castle (she's just finished an Ellery Queen television show . . . and played the leading role in "Hole in the Head" which had a 15-week run in the Civic Playhouse in L.A.) is here as a house guest of Connie (Mrs. Doc) Erickson . . . and her husband William McGarry (currently working on MGM's "Big Circus") will join her here this weekend . . .

Dan Schorr (top CBS correspondent . . . who was in Russia so many years) has been at Desert Inn . . . for a few days rest . . . He's out on the west coast on a lecture tour . . .

I'm the late telling you this . . . but Edie and Alden Ogle divorced in Las Vegas . . . and Edie and Bill Hollingsworth were married in Acapulco a week or so back . . . The bride is the former Edie Logan . . .

El Mirador's Miml and Preston Estep are here from St. Louis . . . arriving in time for the big benefit dinner at Thunderbird . . . and having fun at Wednesday night's Bavarian Beer Festival . . .

Business Women Narrate Tale of Women in Unusual Careers

"Women in Business" was the general theme of the evening when the Desert B&PW Club met at the Clark-Hollister office in Cathedral City.

Marion Monette introduced speakers Clara Irvine, Alice Otto and Fern Scott. Mrs. Irvine who was a shoemaker for 32 years, and raised three daughters while holding down this unusual occupation, gave a most interesting and amusing talk on her experiences in what was then considered strictly a man's occupation.

Mrs. Otto, who has been in electronics for 15 years and is one of the few women jobbers in this field, told of her rise, in spite of being a woman in a field usually left to men. Mrs. Otto also raised a son, and is now part owner of a large wholesale electronics plant.

Fern Scott was called upon to give a summary of her rise to success, in spite of ill health, which forced her to give up her occupation as school teacher and move to the desert. From a little gift shop started in 1945, to a successful clothing store today, with many ups and downs in between, her career is proof of what women can do in business.

Estelle Reutlinger, chairman of the Small Business Committee for Southern District, headed a panel of five in an informative, fast-moving discussion on why people go into business; some of the laws pertaining to business; how to register a name; what to look for in a contract; statistics on most hazards of "making a go" of business, etc. Also on the panel was: Dorcas Dragne, Ruth Holt, Carmen Powell and Dorothy Gruber.

Anna Seufferer won the door prize which was a huge apple pie donated by Carmen Powell.

Guest of the evening was Connie Hadden.

The next Desert B&PW meeting will be held Feb. 3, at 8 p.m., at the Clark Hollister office.

High School P-TA Hears Discussion Of Building Plans

Meeting in the High School Cafeteria Thursday evening, the High School P-TA enjoyed a program presented by Mrs. Frank Hilton, program chairman.

John L. Miles, assistant superintendent of Palm Springs Unified School District, gave a short, informative talk on the building program, and Alex Hammond directed the High School Choir in three vocal selections.

P-TA president Mrs. Allen Stone introduced Mrs. Ben Read of the Palm Springs Woman's Club, who announced the organ recital which Con Maffie will give as a benefit for the Club's scholarship fund on February 23.

Mrs. A. W. Faber and Mrs. Robert Beck presided at the refreshment table where finger sandwiches and cookies donated by the mothers of freshman students, were served with coffee.

Mrs. Stone announced that the next meeting date will be March 19, and that all High School P-TA meetings are open to interested parents.

Make vegetables more interesting by topping them with a seasoned butter-sauce, grated cheese, sauteed mushrooms or nuts.

HANDKERCHIEFS in amazing variety and beauty were showered on Mrs. Frances Blondon, retiring president of Katherine Finchy P-TA, when she was surprise guest of honor at a party arranged by her executive board. Pictured with Mrs. Blondon, center, are Mrs. John McMichael, who will finish out the president's term of office, and Mrs. Lee Muhleck, hostess, on right. (Desert Sun Photo)

Family Here for Birthday

The Paul Burkholder residence on Palermo Drive was the setting for a large family luncheon party honoring the host's birthday, Sunday.

Thirty six relatives came from out-of-town, including his brother Bishop Alvin Burkholder and family from Upland; his sister and her husband, the Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Buckwalter of Pasadena; the Ted Jensens from Ontario; and several nieces and nephews with their families.

A prominent real estate developer of the Southland, Burkholder came to Palm Springs from Arcadia in 1955.

Their many friends sent their best wishes and congratulations that continued throughout the afternoon. In the evening, a gay party of 23 members of the Community Church Flag Ship Mariners organizations, surprised this popular

American Seating Plans Sales Strategy at Convention at El Mirador Hotel

A national marketing program designed to accelerate public demand for better school facilities was announced by the American Seating Co., rated world leader in the public seating industry.

One of the first steps in the company's campaign is a two-day regional sales conference at the El Mirador Hotel, which ends today.

DURING THIS meeting, top sales and marketing officials of the Grand Rapids, Mich., firm, will outline 1959 marketing plans and introduce the latest developments.

Bugs, Beware

ITHACA, N.Y. — (UPI)—Insect repellents, once nearly as repellent to people as to insects, are much more popular to use nowadays, the New York State College of Home Economics is happy to report.

Noting that some are as agreeable as hand lotion, the school reports that one of the newcomers — developed through U.S. Department of Agriculture research — is non-greasy and possesses a fresh, delicate fragrance. This repellent, diethyltoluamide, is very effective against mosquitoes and numerous types of biting insects, ticks and mites and gives protection for several hours.

In materials and product design concepts for classroom furniture and related lines. Attending the meeting will be 125 key distributors and sales personnel from the west, south central and northwestern marketing regions.

Brown Appeals For Smog Aid

SACRAMENTO — (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has sent a plea to President Eisenhower for federal help in "the face of the smothering fog over our cities."

Brown announced Wednesday that he had written the President a letter criticizing his budget request of $4,200,000 for smog research, while the National Air Pollution Control Act passed in 1955 authorized a five-million-dollar annual appropriation through 1960.

Brown said that only $8,500,000 was spent in the first three years of the program instead of the 15 million dollars authorized by the act.

"It would be tragic," the governor wrote, "to abandon this constructive federal program in the face of the smothering fog over our cities."

In describing the new marketing approach in product design for all our lines," he stated.

"At these meetings, we are introducing our new lines of classroom furniture to our entire sales force. And, because they represent a culmination of years of research, testing and development, I am sure our new products and marketing program will have a tremendous impact on the entire industry," Thompson said.

IN ADDITION to classroom furniture, American Seating Co. products have been installed in the vast majority of nationally known institutions, including the new Las Vegas Civic Auditorium scheduled for completion later this year.

Other area installations include: Grauman's Theatre; St. Sophia's Cathedral; Los Angeles County Court House; Santa Anita Race Track; and the Olympic Athletic Club Auditorium.

American Seating Co. will publicly introduce 1959 product lines in mid-February, at the American Association of School Administrators national convention in Atlantic City.

program, J. J. Thompson, sales vice president, said, "At a time when great emphasis is placed on advanced technology and 'space age' educational techniques, it is an absolute necessity that classroom furniture be designed with the utmost flexibility — adaptable to all present and future educational situations."

"DURING 73 YEARS in the public seating industry, we have constantly adhered to the functional

IN ADDITION to classroom furniture, American Seating Co. products have been installed in the vast majority of nationally known institutions, including the new Las Vegas Civic Auditorium scheduled for completion later this year.

Other area installations include: Grauman's Theatre; St. Sophia's Cathedral; Los Angeles County Court House; Santa Anita Race Track; and the Olympic Athletic Club Auditorium.

American Seating Co. will publicly introduce 1959 product lines in mid-February, at the American Association of School Administrators national convention in Atlantic City.

program, J. J. Thompson, sales vice president, said, "At a time when great emphasis is placed on advanced technology and 'space age' educational techniques, it is an absolute necessity that classroom furniture be designed with the utmost flexibility — adaptable to all present and future educational situations."

"DURING 73 YEARS in the public seating industry, we have constantly adhered to the functional approach in product design for all our lines," he stated.

"At these meetings, we are introducing our new lines of classroom furniture to our entire sales force. And, because they represent a culmination of years of research, testing and development, I am sure our new products and marketing program will have a tremendous impact on the entire industry," Thompson said.

No. 593

ORDINANCE NO. 410

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AMENDING SECTION 922.1 OF DIVISION 9 OF THE "PALM SPRINGS ORDINANCE CODE," PROVIDING REGULATIONS FOR BOWLING ALLEY USE AND REPEALING ORDINANCE NO. 402.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Section 922.1 of Division 9 of the "Palms Springs Ordinance Code" is amended by deleting therefrom the use "Bowling Alleys."

SECTION 2. A new Section 922.11 is added to Division 9 of the "Palms Springs Ordinance Code," to read as follows:

922.11 BOWLING ALLEYS. Bowling alleys are permitted in the C-2, CD-1 and CD-2 Zone Districts provided and subject to the following requirements:

a. The use shall be permitted only pursuant to and in compliance with the provisions of Article 923 of this Division, which provides Conditional Use Permit procedure.

b. The off-street parking requirements shall be five (5) parking spaces for each alley. There shall be one (1) space for each five (5) seats in any gallery. Parking shall be installed for additional business use located on the bowling alley site in accordance with the parking requirements in Articles 941 and 942 of this Code.

c. The bowling alley portion of the structure shall be suitably soundproofed and the alleys mounted on suitable structures to prevent transmission of noise and vibration. The noise control level shall be in accordance with Section 9408.11 of this Code.

d. The minimum site area for structures and off-street parking requirements shall be 50,000 square feet. The structures shall be erected entirely within the C-2, CD-1 and CD-2 Zone Districts. In the case of a bowling alley in the C-2 and CD-2 Zone Districts, the required off-street parking area shall be a portion of the 50,000 square foot site and shall be entirely within the C-2 and CD-2 Zone Districts. In the case of a bowling alley in the C-2 and CD-2 Zone Districts, the required off-street parking area shall be a portion of the 50,000 square foot site requirement.

SECTION 3. Ordinance No. 402, enacted as an emergency interim provision, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. The City Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to certify to the passage of this ordinance, and to cause the same to be published once in THE DESERT SUN, a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Palm Springs, California. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after passage.

F. M. BOGERT,
Mayor of Palm Springs, California.

ATTEST:
MARY G. RINGWALD,
City Clerk of Palm Springs, California.

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Palm Springs, California, hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance, being Ordinance No. 410, of the City of Palm Springs, was introduced at a meeting of the City Council of said City held on the 7th day of January, 1959, and was read in full. Thereafter and on the 14th day of January, 1959, the second reading of said ordinance was read and the ordinance was duly passed by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen McKinney, Wolf, Wood, Carlin, Beebe, Hardy and Mayor Bogert.
NAYS: None.
ABSENT: None.

I further certify that the said Ordinance was thereupon signed by F. M. Bogert, Mayor of Palm Springs, and attested by Mary G. Ringwald, City Clerk of said City.

WITNESS my hand and seal of said City this 15th day of January, 1959.

MARY G. RINGWALD,
City Clerk of the City of Palm Springs, California.
Published January 23, 1959.

Two Paintings Given to Schools

Two oil-on-canvas paintings by the celebrated contemporary artist Arthur Hazard have been presented to the Palm Springs Unified School District by art collector Irving Mills, of Beverly Hills.

The canvases painted by the late artist, are "Mountain Landscape" and "Landscape With Trees," valued at $2,500.

Calling Guadalcanal

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Telephone calls may now be placed to Guadalcanal, World War II battleground in the South Pacific.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. said the service will cost $12 for three minutes from any point in the United States and will be available from 12 midnight to 1 a. m. (est), which is 3:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. the following day in Guadalcanal time.

DR. BENJAMIN Goldberg, who was instrumental in securing the paintings for the school district, said that Mills' Beverly Hills home is a veritable museum of rare and costly objects of art.

Dr. Goldberg explained that Mills "enjoys very much in seeing that pieces of art are given to institutions where they will benefit many and will aid in developing an appreciation for finer things."

TELEPHONE COMPANY ANNOUNCES SERVICE EXPANSION PROGRAM

Keeping up with the demand for good telephone service in the desert area, the California Water and Telephone Co. is now completing installation of 2,000 more telephone terminals in the Palm Springs main office.

These 2,000 terminals will handle 1,400 additional lines to serve the ever growing desert area, and will cost in excess of $270,000.

AND THE JOB includes something new in local telephone equipment—the first level-hunting connectors in the area.

These connectors differ from the present rotary connectors in that rotary connectors provide a subscriber with a maximum of 10 trunks or lines from one listed telephone number, while level hunting connectors have a 100 line capacity from a single number.

Doak Davis, manager of the Palm Springs Main office, said that the addition is being done to upgrade the present subscribers and add service for new subscribers.

THE INCREASE TO the present system is about 25 per cent.

At present California Water and Telephone Co. has a total of 7,000 connecting terminals, and with the addition it will have 9,000. At present there are 5,600 lines into the Palm Springs main, and the increase in lines will bring the total to 7,000.

The new job also includes installing additional toll trunks for long distance. Western Electric Co. installation division of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, is now installing the necessary equipment in its office for the increase in toll circuits.

THE LOCAL COMPANY also announced that in November 1958, it had completed installation of four additional information positions at the Palm Springs office, bringing the total to eight. It also replaced four of the older type information boards, added three additional information trunks, five toll information trunks, and five intercepting trunks.

New trunk line additions made up an impressive part of the report by Davis today.

Pyle Leaves Ike For Safety Post

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower today accepted the resignation of Howard K. Pyle as his deputy assistant for inter-governmental relations. Pyle is leaving the post to become president of the National Safety Council.

Pyle is a former Republican governor of Arizona. He served Eisenhower for four years as a specialist on federal-state relations.

More than two million tons of killed each year in this country from smoking in bed.

Damages Claimed After Accident

Four claims against the Coachella Valley County Water District and the Riverside County Flood Control District totaling $90,000 were filed with the Board of Supervisors this week and routinely rejected and turned over to insurance carriers.

The claims were based on an automobile accident which occurred "on or about October 18" on North Indian Avenue about a mile south of Highway 60-70-99 at the Whitewater River wash crossing.

All four claimants gave the same address, that of their attorneys, Simon and Simon, 555 South Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs.

Edward Wodelski and Charles L. Rowe each claimed bodily injuries and damages of $15,000; Larry Poland claimed bodily injuries of $10,000; and Mr. and Mrs. David Bly's $50,000 claim stated, "The extent of damages suffered by us is wrongful death of our son, Du Wayne David Bly who died as a result of severe bodily injuries sustained in the accident."
